

The Wolfe Inn, Wolfscastle

A FRIENDLY, stone-built village pub, the Wolfe Inn has oak beams, open fires and traditional Pembrokeshire features.

This recently refurbished establishment has been restored to an excellent standard with something to offer everyone — from braised rabbit casserole to steak and chips, or a well deserved pint after a hard day at the office.

Families are welcome and catered for with a full children's menu available.

Mark and Alison, the new tenants of the Wolfe, have adapted a professional approach to running the restaurant and the inn, taking pride in customer service, cleanliness, and most importantly the high standard of cooking using quality local produce.

Mark's reputation is second to none. He was the executive chef at the Harp Inn, Letterston for 23 years and has been in the food and hospitality trade all his professional life. Mark and Alison have lived in Pembrokeshire all their lives.

The facilities

With a stunning beer garden, patio and lawned area there is ample parking and easy access to Haverfordwest, Fishguard and even Ireland. The Wolfe has facilities for B&B with four letting rooms available — making it the ideal stop if you're travelling to or from Ireland.

Food and menu

Food is available from noon to 9pm in September with a stunning menu for both adults and children — with a difference. Here are a few of the dishes available:

Chinese crispy beef — strips of prime Welsh rump covered in a spicy sweet and sour and black bean sauce served with rice or 'half and half', or venison and cranberry pie with shortcrust pastry.

Sunday lunches are available with two courses at just £10.95 and three courses just £12.95. Booking is recommended.

The a la carte menu will be available from the end of September.

Events and Parties

At the Wolfe you will find ample space to hold a function or a party with a seating capacity for 70. Mark recommends that you order your three-course Christmas party as soon as possible at just £19.95pp.

Special events

Mark, Alison and staff are giving up their Christmas Day so you can dine and relax at the Wolfe Inn for only £45pp.

A warm welcome

If you visit the Wolfe Inn you will receive a warm welcome and a chance to taste some mouth-watering food.
